Dehradun, nestled in the foothills of the Himalayas, is a beautiful destination known for its natural beauty, temples, and proximity to popular hill stations. Here are some must-visit places in and around Dehradun:

1. Robber's Cave

A natural cave located 8 km from Dehradun, famous for its narrow gorge, waterfalls, and the myth that robbers used to hide here in ancient times.

2. Sahastradhara

Known for its therapeutic sulphur springs, this is a serene place where the water flows through thousands of small channels, making a soothing sound. It's about 14 km from the city centre.

3. Tapkeshwar Temple

Dedicated to Lord Shiva, this temple is situated on the banks of the seasonal river and has a natural cave with a dripping water source, which adds to the temple's significance.

4. Forest Research Institute (FRI)

A beautiful colonial building and the headquarters of the Indian Forest Services. The campus has well-maintained gardens and forests and is a great spot for a nature walk or photography.

5. Rajaji National Park

Situated around 25 km from Dehradun, this national park is an excellent spot for wildlife enthusiasts, featuring elephants, tigers, leopards, and a variety of bird species.

6. Mussoorie

Just 35 km from Dehradun, this iconic hill station is famous for its scenic views, shopping, and attractions like Kemtpy Falls, Camel's Back Road, and the Mussoorie Lake.

These are just a few of the highlights, but Dehradun and its surrounding areas are full of natural beauty, historical sites, and peaceful getaways. Whether you're looking for adventure, spirituality, or relaxation, this region offers something for everyone.
